Inspiring Journeys

Dear Traveller,

As CEO of Inspiring Journeys, I am writing to share some thoughts I hope will be helpful as you review this brochure and consider your travel plans for 2021.

All of us at Inspiring Journeys are in the business of turning travellers' dreams into reality, delivering great service and value each time. Throughout the one hundred years since our founder, Solomon Tollman, started our parent company The Travel Corporation (TTC), we have done just that, year after year. It is why we exist. However, this past year, the reality of a global pandemic has interrupted our collective travel dreams in unprecedented ways.

Now, as we look to travel in 2021, we are beginning to let ourselves dream again – starting with the brochure you have received today. As you do so, we wish to personally assure you that all of us at Inspiring Journeys are intensely focused on the realities of travel in this new era. On behalf of Inspiring Journeys, we want you to know that your wellbeing is and will always be our top priority. While this has always been the case, we have spent these past months working hard to bring this care to an entirely new level, developing policies and protocols that will allow you to book your journey and travel with complete comfort and peace of mind.

To read about our ongoing financial strength, improved booking policies, new flexible change options and more, please visit inspiringjourneys.com/book-with-confidence. During your travels, you will see many steps and innovations designed to do all we can to ensure your health and wellbeing when travelling on one of our trips. You can read about some of these innovations on our website at inspiringjourneys.com/wellbeing. We are constantly updating this information to keep you informed about all we are doing to better meet your needs and expectations.

If you have travelled with us before, you will know that we deeply believe that we must all work to make travel matter, and you may have also learned of some of the meaningful, fantastic work being done by our foundation, TreadRight. As we begin to rediscover the world in 2021, our travels will matter even more. With about ten percent of the world's economy supported by travel and tourism, the pandemic has had a terrible impact on tourism communities around the world. As we return this year and in the years to come, we will all be playing a crucial role in helping heal and rebuild these communities. At Inspiring Journeys, we are committed to making our travel matter and are proud to support local wildlife projects such as the National Kiwi Hatchery Aotearoa in Rotorua and the University of Tasmania's Save the Tasmanian Devil Appeal. We are also passionate about helping local Indigenous communities thrive and offer a multitude of immersive Indigenous experiences on our range of holidays.

While our parent company TTC is a large, financially secure and strong organisation with numerous travel and hospitality brands, we are, first and foremost, a family business, now in our fourth generation. Our balance sheet remains very strong, and at a time when other companies in the industry have gone out of business or may in the near future because of the intense financial pressures we're all facing, we can assure you that we are not going anywhere. Because we are a family business, we take your concerns very personally. Thus if you have any questions, comments or feedback, I invite you to contact me personally, either before, during, or after your journey at mfuller@inspiringjourneys.com.au. I will be sure to respond promptly.

With that, I invite you to enjoy discovering our spectacular range of holiday experiences in this brochure and let your travel dreams come alive – knowing that we are keeping a very close watch on reality, and stand ready to serve you.

Sincerely,

Matt Fuller

An aerial photograph of a red dirt road winding through a landscape of green shrubs and grey rocks. The road is a light brown color, contrasting with the vibrant red soil. The green shrubs are scattered across the landscape, and the grey rocks are small and numerous. The overall scene is a vast, open landscape.

The immersive, vast beauty of Australia and New Zealand awaits.

You'll witness the many hues of an outback sunset blend into ochre natural wonders, hear ancient languages spoken and see stories written in the sand.
Indulge in native flavours and relax in dwellings nestled within the heart of your destination.

This is where your journey begins.

Meet Hatchery Manager,

Emma

At Rainbow Spring Nature Park, Emma helps to protect New Zealand's cherished national bird. With only 5% of Kiwis hatched in the wild surviving to adulthood and a steady population decline of 2-3% per year, conservation projects such as the National Kiwi Hatchery are needed to save the Kiwi bird.

Emma and her team hatch vulnerable Kiwi eggs, incubating them in a safe environment at the Rotorua facility. This eight-month process protects the eggs from predators and releases adults back into the forest where they were originally found. Support Rainbow Springs Nature Park with a guided tour of the hatchery, encounter these charming creatures and learn about the conservation efforts to save them.
